

2015 -2016 Responsive Grant Recipients

Agency Name	Description of Program/Project to be Funded
100 Black Men of Metropolitan St. Louis	support the mentoring component of the Arms Around Us Leadership Academy
Alive, Inc.	support the Nights of Safety program
All About Family 1	provide services that address tobacco use, healthy eating and therapeutic services
Almost Home	support the Foundations to Success transitional living program
American Lung Association of the Upper Midwest	provide supplies, home health assessments and asthma case management services
Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Association, St. Louis Regional Chapter	provide in-home respite services to 10 senior patients and their caregivers/family members
Angel's Arms	support foster care homes
Asthma & Allergy Foundation of America, St. Louis Chapter	support the Breath Program
Center for Hearing & Speech	support the Speech-Language Program
Center for Survivors of Torture and War Trauma	support the Open Door Refugee Youth Program
Center for Women in Transition	support the Mentoring and Advocacy Program
Chess Club and Scholastic Center of St. Louis	expand the Scholastic Chess Initiative
City Academy, Inc.	provide scholarship assistance
Community Health-In-Partnership Services	increase access to quality, affordable health care through free health screenings and health education with referrals and case management services.
Covenant House	provide emergency shelter and support services to homeless and disconnected youth
Criminal Justice Ministry	expand services to ex-offenders
De La Salle, Inc.	support scholarships for St. Louis City students to attend the Summer Scholars Academy
Father's Support Center, St. Louis	provide transportation assistance to program participants
Friends of Kathy J. Weinman Shelter for Victims of Domestic Violence, Inc.	provide transportation assistance to shelter residents from the City of St. Louis

2015 -2016 Responsive Grant Recipients

Gateway to Hope	provide financial assistance with living expenses for individuals diagnosed with breast cancer
Girls Incorporated of St. Louis	support anti-violence, anti-substance abuse and pregnancy prevention outreach programming
Good Shepherd Children & Family Services	support the Expectant Parent Program
Hawthorn Leadership School	support the student enrichment program
Herbert Hoover Boys and Girl Club dba Boys and Girls Club of St. Louis	support the SMART Girls Program
Immigrant & Refugee Women's Program	support the in-home tutoring program
International Institute of Metropolitan St. Louis	support the Global Farm Season Extension program
Kingdom House	support the CDF Freedom School Program
LaunchCode	provide accelerated computer programming classes and apprenticeship opportunities
Let's Start, Inc.	support the Let's Start with the Kids Program
Lutheran Family and Children's Services of Missouri	support the STEP UP violence prevention program
Lydia's House	purchase necessary bedding supplies for the Children's Program
Memory Care Home Solutions	support the Customized Dementia Intervention Program
Missouri EnergyCare, Inc.	support the Summer Cooling Program
Museum of Black Inventors	support a six-week summer camp program
Northside Community Housing, Inc.	support the Near North Life Skills For Youth summer employment and enrichment program
Northside Workshop	support the Peace Weaving Wholeness Program
Nurses for Newborns	support the Home Visitation Program
Our Lady of Guadalupe	provide tuition scholarships

2015 -2016 Responsive Grant Recipients

Riverview West Florissant Development Corporation	provide computer training for youth ages five to 18
Sherwood Forest	support the year-round youth development program
Southside Senior Citizen's Center	expand Preventative Care Program for Disabled Adults
Springboard	support educational programming
St. Andrew's At-Home Services dba St. Andrew's Senior Solutions	support in-home services, geriatric care management, and safety assessments for low-income seniors
St. John Community Improvement Corporation	support the Project-Start A Youth Literacy Program
St. Louis Area Women Religious Collaborative dba English Tutoring Project	support tutor stipends and purchase educational materials
St. Louis HELP	loan new and refurbished medical equipment through the Home Medical Equipment program
St. Louis Internship Program	support the Pre-Internship Component which provides school and career planning
The Board for Inner City Missions of the United Church of Christ dba Neighborhood Houses	provide scholarships for children to attend the Early Childhood Education Center
The Empowerment Network	hire a part-time nurse practitioner and a mental health counselor to facilitate peer survivor network
The Franciscan Connection	support the Emergency Utility Aid Program
The Women's Safe House	provide services to women and their children who are survivors of domestic violence
VOYCE	conduct Family Advocacy workshops
Youth and Family Center	support the Teen Employment Project
Youth Learning Center	support Solve+Build+Play After School Program